

General Claims Process Claims Form

This form assists claimants in preparing and submitting claims. Its use is optional.

If you choose to use this form, you must also attach supporting documentation.

For information on eligibility for compensation, the kinds of compensable damages, submission deadlines, and the assessment process, see the General Claims Manual, available online at www.ship-rail.gc.ca under the "Submit a Claim to the Ship Fund" tab.

We take questions and provides free guidance at every step of the way. We can be reached at 1-866-991-1727 or claims-reclamations@sr-nr.gc.ca.

If yes, identify and provide all known contact information: _____

7. Have you communicated with any government agencies (e.g., the Canadian Coast Guard)?

Yes No

If yes, list agencies and provide brief details: _____

8. Are you seeking compensation from any other source? Yes No

If yes, provide details: _____

Additional documentation required. See Part D for instructions.

Part C: Damages

Provide the best possible evidence in support of your damages. Any questions can be directed to our Claims Centre.

1. For what type(s) of damages are you seeking compensation? Check all that apply.

Response measures and clean-up

Costs associated with measures taken to prevent, repair, remedy, or minimize the effects of oil pollution from a ship. These measures may be taken in anticipation of a spill, during a spill, or after a spill.

Environmental reinstatement

Costs associated with measures taken to accelerate the natural recovery of the environment after an oil spill. This includes the costs of post-spill environmental impact studies. Environmental costs that have not yet been incurred may also be compensable.

Property damage

Costs associated with cleaning, repairing, or replacing oil-contaminated property. Compensation is also available where property is damaged by response measures.

Economic, subsistence, and cultural losses

Lost wages or earnings in any industry, including reduced yields for those who fish, hunt, or harvest on a subsistence basis. Compensation for economic loss is available even if your property has not been contaminated with oil. Economic loss caused by response measures is also compensable.

Certain cultural impacts of an oil spill may also result in compensable damages. Compensation for cultural losses is limited to the cost of replacement options, where available.

Compensation is also available in this category for losses that have not yet been suffered at the time a claim is submitted.

Claim preparation

Costs associated with preparing and submitting a claim, including professional advice and assistance.

I don't know

Damages that aren't easy to classify may still be compensable.

2. Total dollar amount of your claim: _____

Amount not known

3. Have you already received compensation from any other source? Yes No

If yes, provide details: _____

Additional documentation required. See Part D.

Part D: Supporting Documentation

As noted in Parts B and C, additional documentation is required to support your claim.

Narrative

Attach a description of the incident from your perspective. Your narrative should be chronological. If possible, it should be organized in daily or hourly blocks. It should answer the following questions:

- How did you first learn of the incident?
- What happened?
- What did you do in response?
- Why did you do what you did?
- Who did you interact with during and after the incident?
- How did the incident cause your damages?
- Are you still suffering damages as a result of the incident? If so, provide details.

I am including a narrative.

Incident Documentation

Any additional documentation that you have on the incident is useful to support your narrative. Attach copies of all relevant documentation to this form.

Check only the boxes that apply, and provide a brief description of each piece of your documentation:

Photographs (include dates and times if possible)

Map showing the location of incident and affected areas

Logbooks and notes made during and after the incident

Copies of any correspondence with the shipowner and/or other involved parties

Any other relevant information or documentation

Description of Damages

Attach a description of your damages, including dollar amounts, if known. Where appropriate, explain how you assigned a dollar value to each of your damages.

I am including a description of my damages.

Documentation of Damages

Attach copies of additional documentation in support of your damages.

Check only the boxes that apply, and provide a brief description of each piece of your documentation:

Contracts, statements of work, price quotes, invoices, and receipts

Financial records and income tax documentation

Appraisals, assessments, and survey reports

Any other relevant information or documentation

Part E: Attestation

Read the following statement carefully and sign only if it accurately describes your situation.

For corporations and other organizations, an authorized representative must complete this Part.

My claim submission is, to the best of my knowledge and belief, a true and accurate reflection of my actual damages. I have included information on any compensation that I am seeking or have already received from sources other than the Ship Fund. Finally, I understand that the documentation and information that I submit will be publicly accessible.
